

H U N G A R Y .

VILKA GLÜCKLICH, Budapest, Teacher. President of the Hungarian Feminist Association since 1904. One of the pioneers of woman's suffrage in Hungary. One of the workers for school-reform. Ardent peace worker. Under the late Tisza-regime she was sentenced to 3 days imprisonment for peace-agitation.

PAULA POGANY, Budapest, Secretary of the Hungarian feminist association. Editor of the feminist review "A No" (The Woman)

A U S T R A L I A .

Miss ELEANOR E. MOORE, Melbourne, Shorthand writer, representing Sisterhood of International Peace, Melbourne. President of Shorthand Writers' & Typists' Association, Melbourne, and member of Commercial Clerks' Wages Board. Has been engaged in writing & public speaking in connection with peace questions since 1915; took an active part in anti-conscription campaign in 1917.

Miss VIDA GOLDSTEIN, Melbourne. Journalist, engaged in Work for Women & Children, abolition of Capitalist System, abolition of militarism, President Australian Women's Peace Army. Pres. Women's Political Association, Editor "Australian Woman Voter". Candidate for Commonwealth Parliament.

Miss CECILIA JOHN, Melbourne. Director of People's Conservatorium Melbourne, engaged in Work for Women and Children, abolition of Militarism in every form, including citizen training. Secretary of Women's Peace Army. Founded farm for free training of women desiring agricultural career. General work of education through the channels of Music and Art as being fundamental to true progress.

I T A L I E .

ROSA GENONI, Insegnante Storia del costume nelle Scuole Professionali -

~~Umanitarie~~ - Milano. ~~Rédactrice~~ Rédactrice: Revue Littéraire LIDEL Journal Difesa delle Lavoratrici. Correspondente du journal Avanti. Fondatrice du comité pro Umanità pour l'aide aux réfugiés et le secours aux prisonniers de guerre pauvres. Publia un livre: Pour une Mode Italienne. Fit ~~xx~~ l'histoire du costume à travers les siècles en projections lumineuses pour l'Institut National d'Education Minerva de Rome à l'usage de l'enseignement dans les écoles et Universités Populaires. Déléguée par l'Association nationale des mères et veuves des morts en guerre, des sœurs, des épouses, mères et filles des mutilés.